The book of Philippians is Paul’s premier epistle about learning and growing in “the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus [our] Lord.” The difficulties of life have a way of showing us that we are, indeed, “earthen vessels”—frail, weak, and passing away. They force us to see our need of a power and resource far greater than ourselves. Turning to Christ . . . trusting His Word . . . we find that He is our strength, our peace, our hope, our life. We find in Him “consolation,” “comfort of love,” “fellowship of the Spirit,” and “bowels and mercies.” Thus, the difficulties of life are the very opportunity to not only manifest, but magnify, Christ, putting Him on display as the living, powerful, strengthening, comforting Savior that He is. This is one of the essential truths that Paul seeks to convey in Philippians. He sums it up best in saying, “For to me to live is Christ...” (Phil. 1:21)

We invite you to come and join us as we study through this blessed epistle and discover Christ as our all in all.

"But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;"

Phil. 3:7-10
